'ello, 'ello, 'ello!

The Early Years topic this term is –
People who help us.

On Wednesday the children met some special visitors – four police men. The children thoroughly enjoyed learning about the job of the police, how they help us in the community and trying on their uniform.

Writers workshop

Some of our talented writers attended 'The Able Writers Day' at the Charing Cross Library. The author, Neil Zetter's workshops were lots of fun as well as being very educational.

YEAR 4 BIKEABILITY

The Year 4 pupils had a great time learning and developing practical skills on how to cycle safely and with confidence on today's roads.
